

LUNAFEST® FILM SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

MISSION OF LUNAFEST: Celebrate and inspire women through the art of film and community fundraising.

LUNAFEST accepts film submissions from September 15 – March 15 annually. From amateur filmmakers to film students to aspiring indie stars, we look for female filmmakers and producers from around the globe with unique films by, for and about women.

If your film is chosen by our LUNAFEST Board of Advisors as a winning film, LUNA will award you $1,000 and your film will be shown at over 150 community benefit events nationwide.

JUDGING

Films will be judged by LUNAFEST staff members and the LUNAFEST Board of Advisors, a group of key film industry professionals and leaders of community organizations. Criteria include creativity, content and how well the film meets the by women, for women and about women theme. The film's integrity and the dialogue generated among its viewers will also be rated.

OUR WINNING FILMS

Winning films will be shown on DVD format and will not be returned. The films will be shown at up to 200 venues across the United States and Canada from September 2012 through August 2013. Festival copies of winning films and a press packet must be received no later than July 1, 2012.

ELIGIBILITY AND LICENSE

Clif Bar & Company and the Breast Cancer Fund employees, relatives and sponsored athletes are prohibited from entering. Each film entrant agrees that by submitting an entry to LUNAFEST, Clif Bar & Company and the Breast Cancer Fund are granted, without compensation to the entrant and without any further approval or review, a non-exclusive, royalty free license to (1) show the entry at LUNAFEST events, and (2) use the name, picture, likeness and information about the entrant and the entry and its actors for advertising and publicity purposes in connection with LUNAFEST events, whether utilized in print or electronic media, television, video, film, radio, internet or other media.
