2021 FILMS

OVEREXPOSED (12:00)
A behind-the-scenes look at the film team that captured the daring story of the Women’s Euro-Arabian North Pole Expedition.
Filmmaker: Holly Morris (Santa Fe, NM)
Co-Produced by LUNA® and Chicken & Egg Pictures

KNOCKING DOWN THE FENCES (12:00)
AJ Andrews, the first woman to win a Rawlings Gold Glove Award, struggles to make it as one of the best professional softball players in the world.
Filmmakers: Meg Shutzer (Oakland, CA)

A LINE BIRDS CANNOT SEE (9:00)
Separated at the border, a 12 year old sets out on a harrowing journey to the U.S. to find her mother.
Filmmaker: Amy Bench (Austin, TX)

THE SCIENTISTS VERSUS DARTMOUTH (14:00)
A young neuroscientist and her colleagues make a life-changing decision to speak up for women in science everywhere.
Filmmaker: Sharon Shattuck (Brooklyn, NY)
Co-Produced by LUNA® and Chicken & Egg Pictures

see next page...
UNTIL SHE IS FREE (14:00)
Mixed media artist Sophia Wallace imagines a culturally literate world, where all people are equal and able to live with rich possibility and purpose.
Filmmaker: Maria Finitzo (Chicago, IL)
Co-Produced by LUNA® and Chicken & Egg Pictures

CONNECTION (8:00)
A lifelong angler, Autumn Harvy had never fished beyond the waters of her reservation—until she picked up a fly rod.
Filmmakers: Ciara Lacy (Honolulu, HI and Portland, OR) and Tracy Nguyen-Chung (Los Angeles, CA)

BETYE SAAR: TAKING CARE OF BUSINESS (8:00)
At 93, there's no stopping when it comes to this legendary artist.
Filmmaker: Christine Turner (Brooklyn, NY)

All of these LUNAFEST® films were chosen to celebrate LUNA®'s rallying cry for equality: Someday Is Now®.
For information, please visit LUNAFEST.org.